LITTLE BACKBONE CREEK NATURAL WATERSLIDE

VISIT WEBSITE

Little Backbone Creek and Natural Waterslide is a popular destination for people with a boat on Shasta Lake. Head into the inlet, go all the way to the back until you see the creek and anchor here. Hike up the creek, which is in a canyon. You'll pass a series of crystal-clear ponds and boulders. The red rocks here are full of minerals, so it's a good idea to wear dark bottoms or swim trunks if you plan on sliding so the color doesn't stain. Once you reach the pool with the natural slide, you will be impressed by the idyllic scenery. Jump in and use the rope to climb up to the top of the falls.
